IN AND AROUND KEY WEST,
FLORIDA.

Attached to Finley No. 15.

THIS split-reel scenic presents the most interesting locations of the city of Key West. This city is the home of the first monument erected in memory of the brave seamen who died on the battleship "Maine." An interesting spot for tourists is the famous house, now deserted, built entirely of coral. An every-day scene in Key West, which is a novelty to outsiders, is the walking dairy, which is the only means of distributing milk. The climate in this city is warm nearly all the year round. It is interesting to note the absence of chimneys in the houses.
